

"Someday We'll Know"

The STEPS Summer School 2014 Theme Song

A few miles outside Brighton
Can't stop thinking. I don't know why
So many questions. I need an answer
Twelve hours later it's still on my mind
Whatever happened to the 3d framework
Who frames narratives and does so why?
Is true love once in a lifetime
Did the resilience centre's people cry

[chorus 1]

Someday we'll know
How to understand dynamics
Someday we'll know
How to open up
Someday we'll know
What pathways really mean to you

Does anybody know the framing of pathways
Or what the heuristic framework means
I'm reading the manifesto again now
For the 97th time tonight

[chorus 2]

Someday we'll know
What Ian meant and Andy
One day I'll go
Using that damn Q
Someday we'll know
That STEPS people know what they do

[chorus 1]

[interlude]

I bought a ticket to the planetary boundaries
I watched pluralism rise as an idea
If I could ask Ian just one question
Why aren't you here with me?

[chorus 2]
